Returning Soldiers reunite with families

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUND, Md - Soldiers from the 324th Military Police Battalion of Chambersburg, Pa., returning today from Operation Iraqi Freedom, will reunite with family members later today at Aberdeen Proving Ground, between 7:30 and 10:30 p.m.

The second group is expected to arrive Thursday between 4:30 and 7:30 p.m.

As escorts are required, media interested in covering this event should contact the APG Public Affairs Office, prior to 5:30 p.m. at 410-278-1153 or 410-278-1147, for escort arrangements and directions to the Visitor Center.

Be advised every member of the media requesting entry to the installation must have photo identification and the driver must provide registration for his/her vehicle.

Photographs and film footage of the entry gate to the installation are prohibited.
